CALL TO HOLINESS

Gaudete et exultate is the third apostolic exhortation of Pope Francis, published on 9 April 2018, subtitled "on the call to holiness in today's world". The Pope challenges us on the path to holiness as a necessary step towards happiness. Is this only for a chosen few? Holiness stems from our dignity as human persons and who are invited to live out the beatitudes so as to embark on this path. The Pope mentions signs of what genuine holiness entails. To have more insight come and listen to Fr Alliston on Thursday, Sept 20th at 7:30 pm at St Joseph's Parish Hall. Refreshments will be served!

DROP IN

The next Stepping Stones 'Drop-In' is on Friday 14th September, 2.15pm – 4.00pm, in the coffee lounge, Broadstone Methodist Church. Adoremus – Time before the Blessed Sacrament

Understanding Adoration

Our word 'Adoration' is thought to come from the Roman gesture of moving a hand to the mouth (Ad = to or towards, os/oris = mouth). This was used in ancient Rome to acknowledge the gods of the empire. Made towards statues of the gods, it implied the recognition of their divinity and one's personal submission to their power. The gesture itself was also understood as prayer. (A hand-to-mouth gesture we have in today's culture is 'blowing a kiss' — in itself this could be a beautiful gesture to God, though not part of our current traditional practice.)

In Matthew's gospel we are told Adore the Lord, your God and worship him alone (Mt 4:10). Our catechetical teaching explains These words mean to adore God as the Lord of everything that exists; to render to him the individual and community worship which is his due; to pray to him with sentiments of praise, of thanks and of supplication; to offer him sacrifices, above all the spiritual sacrifice of Christ; and to keep the promises and vows made to him. The simplest Christian definition of adoration is the humble acknowledgement by human beings that they are creatures of the thrice-holy creator.

Gestures of Adoration

St Thomas Aquinas explains that both angels and humans adore God spiritually, but humans in addition adore with our bodies. This is a great prompt to us, especially before the Eucharist. Kneeling, putting hands together in prayer, bowing, genuflecting, making the sign of the cross as we pass a church which contains the Blessed Sacrament and similar gestures, includes our bodies wonderfully in adoration prayer.

The Spirit of Adoration

Saints and other authors encourage celebration of God as the source, the perfection and end of our being, and so celebrate God's infinity, immensity, immutability, eternity, all-powerfulness, wisdom, perfection, holiness, creation, goodness, sovereignty, providence, mercy, justice, etc.

Holy Scripture talks of the need to magnify the Lord with me and exalt his name in the assembly (Ps 33[34]:3) and make his name great among the peoples (Mal 1:11). The Lord's Prayer can lead us to meditating on the Hallowed be your name as well as crying out God's greatness and perfection (e.g. in the Divine Praises) against blasphemy, profanations, corruptions, heresies and the like. Some find it fruitful to pray to and meditate on God as creator, as sanctifier, as judge, as spouse, as healer, as redeemer, at different times in prayer.

St Francis of Assisi calls all creation to join in adoring God the creator in his Canticle of the Sun and Canticle of the Creatures, and so widens the understanding of adoration beyond prayer before the Blessed Sacrament.

Bl. Edmund Rice wrote all the important letters of his ministry before the Blessed Sacrament — this great witness, and others too, can help us deepen our own adoration spirit.
