MARY'S SVP – LINKED WITH ST ANTHONY'S

We should like to thank you all for your generous contributions over the last year. The theme for this year is "We support people in need wherever we find them" and your help has enabled us to do that.

We have 16 members who have been involved in many different ways, making over 700 visits to people at home or in hospital and giving almost 500 lifts to help people to get to Mass, medical or other appointments and social occasions such as our Tea and Chat. We have helped two families to enjoy caravan holidays and donated food, clothes and electrical equipment as well as helping with the soup run, food bank and the Apostleship of the Sea for visiting seamen in Poole Port. We send regular aid to four SVP Conferences in India and have recently sponsored six needy Indian schoolchildren so they can continue their education. Perhaps Tea and Chat is our best known local activity and we now have 40 Senior members attending every month for friendship and activities. Thanks to Co-op sponsorship we have also been able to organise 4 Tea and Chat outings this summer which have been greatly enjoyed by all.

PLEASE PRAY FOR - AND IF YOU CAN WRITE TO YOUR MP

A 'ten-minute rule' bill on Tuesday 23rd October will seek to decriminalise all killing of unborn children in our country. Far from protecting women, vulnerable women are likely to be at far greater risk from abusive men. Protection for medical professionals' freedom of conscience would go. The tacit legal protection that our unborn fellow human beings have would be wiped out. Please pray that this bill does not make it through and if you can please to your MP asking them to vote against the bill.

READERS NEW AND OLD (MORE EXPERIENCED) – ST MARY'S

The reading the Word of the Lord at mass is a very important part of the liturgy. Taking up the ministry of reader is a positive and satisfying way you can serve the Church and the Parish without being overly demanding of time in our busy lives. We are lucky to have a solid 'core' of regular readers at St Mary's, at present we have a few vacancies for reading at both the 9:30 and 5:30 Masses.

If you think this could be something you could do and would like to read at Mass or please contact Dick Appleton dick@appletonpoole.co.uk or 01202676350 before 5th November.

There will be a meeting in the Church at 8:00pm after Holy Hour on Wednesday 7th November for new and existing readers alike where there will be instruction and guidance as well as the chance of discussion and the opportunity to use the sound system. Look forward to meeting you there.

Dick

Adoremus – Time before the Blessed Sacrament

Looking.

Of you my heart has spoken: 'Seek his face.' Psalm 26:8

Looking with a Loving Gaze

No one who has ever been in love needs to be reminded that there are moments in a loving relationship when words are unnecessary. It is the same in our relationship with God. Wordless, quiet rest in the presence of the One who loves us has a name in the Christian Tradition – contemplation. The English word is derived from the Latin, 'contemplari' meaning 'to gaze at attentively.' It is a prayer that is particularly appropriate before Jesus, present in the Blessed Sacrament. The Jesuit priest, Walter Burghardt described this form of prayer as, 'A long, loving look at the real'. Each word in Burghardt's description is significant — real... look... long... loving.

The Real

To take a long, loving look at something — people, places, trees, lakes, a new born child, mountains, is a natural act of contemplation, of loving admiration.

The 'real' we are invited to contemplate now, to look on with loving admiration is what we call 'The Real Presence' — Jesus truly present in the Blessed Sacrament and waiting for us to call upon him.

The Look

It is looking at rather than thinking. I do not try to analyse, describe or define. I enter into communion. Burghardt gives the example, 'As I sit by a river, I do not cry out, 'Look, H2O.' I simply let the water trickle through my fingers'. To 'look' means to engage not only with my mind, but with the whole person, — the eyes, the ears, touch smell and taste. We are invited to rest in what we have come to know, in 'what we have heard, what we have seen, with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands', (1Jn1:1)

The Long Look

St Alphonsus Liguori speaking of his own experience of time before the Blessed Sacrament once remarked that sometimes a quarter of an hour before the Blessed Sacrament seemed like an age! The Lord is not a time-keeper. It is not time itself that is important but rather as measure of the quality of our commitment and love. 'The long, loving look at the real' is about resting rather than rushing, about allowing myself to be unhurried, to be happy simply to linger and wait — to patiently wait for Jesus to speak.

The Loving Look

'A long, loving look at the real' is a gaze rather than a fixed stare. It means allowing the 'real', in this case, Jesus, really and truly present in the Blessed Sacrament, to capture me, to delight me, to let myself be drawn into communion.

And, of course, all this we do within God's 'long, loving look' at us which shines over every moment of every day.
