"CAFOD GROUP :RE-LAUNCH 2019

We are hoping to set up a group of people interested in supporting the work of CAFOD and raising its profile within the Parish. Some of our first ideas is to work towards achieving the LIVE SIMPLY CAFOD award for the Parish and to raise the awareness of the refugee crisis across the world. There will be a planning meeting on Monday 4th February 7.45pm and is open to anyone interested in supporting this. We need lots of ideas and support so please try to join us Please contact Tracy on tracy.nelms@ntlworld.com or Marie on m.cleary123@ntlworld.com for more information"

ORANGE RECYCLING BOX in porch – Thank you so much for your great contributions, but please note – no toners/ink cartridges, glasses or Christmas cards. Always welcome, used stamps, odd foreign coins and notes.

ST. ANTHONY MASS TIME – Saturday evening. A second survey will be handed out over the next three weekends in relation to the preference of Mass time. The PPC committee promised that after 6 months we would look again at the Saturday Mass time giving parishioners the opportunity to change their minds if they so wished. This survey will close on 9th February and results will lead to a permanent Mass time on Saturday evening.

FIVE FRIENDS TO FAITH?

Cardinal Vincent Nichols, the Archbishop of Westminster is urging every Catholic to pray that five people they know might become Christians. In a joint letter with the Archbishop of Canterbury Justin Welby and other church leaders, Cardinal Nichols said: "In particular, can we encourage you to perhaps join with us in praying for five particular individuals to make the best decision anyone can ever make in their lives – to become followers of Jesus Christ, or to pray that in your community, in very specific ways, the love of Christ might be seen and heard so that there will be many whose lives are touch by the grace of God?"

WELCOME

If you are a visitor, we hope you enjoy your stay with us. If you are new to the parish, we invite you to fill out a parish registration form. Why not join us for tea or coffee in the hall after Sunday morning mass (St Mary's) and Saturday evening Mass (St Anthony's) to get to know your fellow parishioners?

Mary's Meals

Magnus MacFarlane-Barrow grew up in Argyll, Scotland. In 1983, a pilgrimage to the Marian shrine of Medjugorje in Bosnia-Herzegovina renewed his family's Catholic faith and led Magnus' parents to convert their guesthouse into a retreat centre or 'Family House of Prayer'.

1992: Magnus and his brother Fergus were enjoying a pint in their local pub when they saw TV news reports of the Bosnian conflict. They felt moved to help those suffering.

After spending much of the night talking about ways to support the Bosnian relief effort, the brothers decided to organise a local appeal. Food, clothing, medicines and donations of money soon began to arrive at their home.

Magnus and Fergus grabbed a week's holiday from the fish farms where they worked, bought a second-hand Land Rover, and joined an aid convoy. They delivered the donated goods to Medjugorje in Bosnia-Herzegovina, a place of international pilgrimage.

Believing their good deed was done, Magnus and Fergus returned home to Argyll expecting to resume their jobs as fish farmers. But public donations had continued to flood in, filling their parents' shed with goods.

Magnus decided to give up his job and take a 'gap year.' He sold his small house so he could drive aid out to Bosnia-Herzegovina for as long as the public kept donating. The public did not stop and Magnus never returned to his old job. It soon became necessary to set up a registered charity, Scottish International Relief (SIR).

Over the next 10 years, SIR expanded. It began building homes for abandoned children in Romania, helped returning refugees in Liberia by setting up mobile clinics, and continued to deliver material aid to Croatia and Bosnia-Herzegovina as well as funding many additional projects.

Magnus met a lady called Emma while SIR was providing famine relief in Malawi. She was dying of AIDS and lay on the floor of her hut surrounded by her six young children. Emma said all that was left for her was to pray that someone might care for them after her death.

Magnus asked her eldest, Edward, what he hoped for in life. He replied simply: "I want to have enough food to eat and to go to school one day."

Edward's words helped inspire the founding of Mary's Meals, which aims to provide chronically hungry children with one meal every school day.

Ann White, a volunteer speaker from this low key but highly effective charity, will speak briefly at Masses on 16/17th February.
