Dear Parents and Carers,

RE: This week we completed our work on the Sacrament of marriage. Next week we will start to look at what Advent means to us and why it is such a special time of year.

Maths: We completed our work on multiplication and division. We will be starting the next unit which is looking at tables and graphs.

English: The children have worked hard with their prequel to our novel, 'Alone on a Wide Wide Sea'. Next week we will be learning how to write an informal letter in role as Arthur.

EXTRA:

- PE on Tuesdays and Thursdays.
- Don't forget to look at the clubs that are available this half term!
- Don't forget to follow St Mary's on Twitter for up to date news (@stmaryspoole)
- @year5stmary
- Many children are not reading at least three times a week, please encourage your child to read and record this within their diary.

Homework: (Given out on Thursday – Due in on Tues)

1. Maths homework-given out on a Thursday, due in on a Tuesday.
2. Grammar homework- given out on a Thursday, due in on a Tuesday
3. Reading daily- Record in homework diaries at least 3 times a week and please remember to sign diaries. 5L's diaries will be checked on Thursdays and 5W's diaries will be checked on Fridays.
4. Learn spellings – tested on Thursday.

Regards,

Year 5 Team
