ST MARY'S SVP – LINKED WITH ST ANTHONY'S

We should like to thank you all for your generous contributions over the last year. The theme for this year is "We support people in need wherever we find them" and your help has enabled us to do that.

We have 16 members who have been involved in many different ways, making over 700 visits to people at home or in hospital and giving almost 500 lifts to help people to get to Mass, medical or other appointments and social occasions such as our Tea and Chat. We have helped two families to enjoy caravan holidays and donated food, clothes and electrical equipment as well as helping with the soup run, food bank and the Apostleship of the Sea for visiting seamen in Poole Port. We send regular aid to four SVP Conferences in India and have recently sponsored six needy Indian schoolchildren so they can continue their education. Perhaps Tea and Chat is our best known local activity and we now have 40 Senior members attending every month for friendship and activities. Thanks to Co-op sponsorship we have also been able to organise 4 Tea and Chat outings this summer which have been greatly enjoyed by all.

PLEASE PRAY FOR - AND IF YOU CAN WRITE TO YOUR MP

A 'ten-minute rule' bill on Tuesday 23rd October will seek to decriminalise all killing of unborn children in our country. Far from protecting women, vulnerable women are likely to be at far greater risk from abusive men. Protection for medical professionals' freedom of conscience would go. The tacit legal protection that our unborn fellow human beings have would be wiped out. Please pray that this bill does not make it through and if you can please to your MP asking them to vote against the bill.

'Time to Remember' Candles on the Lake Sat 20th Oct

A MESSAGE FROM FR. COLIN

Thank you! These two small words do not seem to be enough to show my true appreciation for the beautiful farewell mass celebrated on Friday evening (28th September) at St Mary's. It was so lovely to see so many parishioners from both St Mary's and St Anthony's. Thank you for the party after in the hall, and for the 'Prosecco and Salmon' do at St Anthony's. Thank you to all who made the mass possible (too many to name and the possibility that I miss someone is too scary) and a special thank you to Tricia Fernley for doing the food. I am over whelmed by your generosity for my leaving gifts. THANK YOU!

Adoremus – Time before the Blessed Sacrament

Listening.

Incline your ear, and come to me; hear, that your soul may live. Isaiah 55:3

Jesus and Listening

Jesus would have grown up with the Jewish prayer 'Shema Israel' (Listen, Israel) from Deuteronomy 6:4. Listening to God was an appropriate and correct stance of the whole people of God. As a faithful Jew, Jesus would recite this prayer morning and evening, and, undoubtedly, would try to live this stance of faithful attentiveness to God in between.

We can see in the Gospels that listening was important for Jesus. When he was twelve, he was found in the Temple listening to the teachers and asking them questions (Lk 2:46). In his public ministry, he listened to people and their problems. He even started some of his key parables with the word 'listen' (Mk 4:3), and reminded people to use their ears for listening well and at depth (Mt 4:9...). What is more, Jesus had a custom of withdrawing to lonely places and tops of mountains to listen to his Father (Mk 1:35, Mk 6:45-46; Mk 14:32-34; Lk 5:16; Lk 6:12...).

At the Transfiguration, the disciples are in turn told to listen to Jesus. The time here, in front of the Blessed Sacrament, is a good opportunity to do just that.

Listening

When we come to the Lord, we often have a list of petitions we would like to voice. This is very good and a healthy part of prayer. However, it is important to give God a chance to answer too. After all, prayer is a conversation, not a monologue. So, if we start a prayer in a mode of 'Listen, Lord, your servant is speaking,' we then need to allow for a mode of 'Speak, Lord, your servant is listening.'

It is not easy to listen. We often hear things, but do not listen to them. They come in one ear, out the other, simply because we are too preoccupied with other things, or too afraid to actually hear properly. Our attention is elsewhere, on matters that seem more important than what is just being communicated to us.

True listening, on the other hand, happens when we are able to, for a moment, suspend our preoccupations and welcome the other person's reality as our own. When we 'bracket out' our ego, put it on hold, and pay attention - even undivided attention - to the other person.

God wants to speak to us even though it is not always through words. We may not hear a voice like Samuel, but a word may emerge in the stillness, or an answer, or a question, or a prompt... An image may carry meaning, or a word from the Scripture may glow with sudden vibrancy. An insight may come to us, or the gifts we have received from God may be affirmed or reinforced. Whatever it is, it is worth our attention and deep listening, followed by a discernment with a trusted person.
